

1066

July, 1066- Harold and William prepares fleet for an invasion

January 4th 1066- King Edward the Confessor dies without an heir.

January 6th 1066- Harold Earl of Wessex crowned King

September 1066- King of Norway, Harald Godfredson prepares the Vikings for an invasion

We've won!

21st of September 1066 Battle won by Vikings who defeated the English lead by Maccus

20th of September 1066- The battle of Fulford Gate.

One man stands on the bridge killing everyone that challenges him

September 28th 1066- The Stamford bridge battle

Harold defeats the Norman invasion at York

Harald Godfredson hit in the throat with an arrow

The battle of Hastings.

4th of September, 1066- King Harold dies from an arrow to his right eye.

William crowned King

The End.

Battle went for hours.

Both armies had equal chances at winning. But the English were manipulated into thinking the Normans were retreating & broke the defence line, giving the Normans the chance to strike them down.